

I am concerned about your attempts to repeal the restrictions on ownership of various media outlets by the same corporation, particularly in the same geographic area. Democracy depends on diversity of opinion, and if the same corporation owns both, for example, the local radio station and the local newspaper, diversity and balanced, fair reporting of news are threatened. Please reconsider your options in light of its effect upon the public welfare and the democratic process.

Thank you for your consideration of this viewpoint.